2 A. I wasn't aware of that.
3 Q. Do you see the last paragraph – the
4 last sentence of the paragraph says, "A fair value
5 of the partnership's outstanding notes receivable
6 approximates the carrying value of the notes
7 receivable"?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Do you understand that to mean that
10 the fair value of the notes equals to the 11 principal face amount of the notes?
12 A. The carrying value would include the 13 face amount probably and any unpaid interest, but
14 yes, it would be the book – the book value, yes.
15 Q. And the book value in this case equals
16 the unpaid principal and interest due on the note,
17 correct?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And so as of this time anyway, the
20 fair value of the notes equaled the unpaid
21 principal and interest due on the note, correct?
22 MR. AIGEN: Objection, form.
23 A. Yes, I think that's right.

So the $21 million analysis would certainly look like it would get somewhat smaller, but I would — sitting here, the 8 million you mentioned, that looks like about 4 or 5 million was a deferred comp award made in the year of bankruptcy, which I'd probably put a question mark around.  But it does look like, to some degree, the $21 million difference that I've calculated would be reduced.
5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	And I will also represent to you that the aggregate amount of those payments were approximately a half a million dollars, and that if we added up the value of the payment – the W-2 payments from Highland Capital Management PTE LTD, along with the NexPoint Residential Trust W-2 income that we looked at, along with the value of the stock options, that we would come up with a number in excess of $13 million, with that representation, how comfortable are you that your $21 million accurately states the difference between what Mr. Dondero received in the 7-year period from 2013 through 2019 and what he would have received if he had received the comparable	4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	year of bankruptcy, which I would certainly put probably, in the work we do, put a question mark next to, but you certainly pointed out some omissions that should be included. 3 A. Yes, we did have that conversation.
4 Q. Okay. Was that conversation in
5 connection with trying to figure out the right
6 numbers for a pot plan?
7 A. Yeah. I mean, it was – it was – I
8 mean, Jim – Jim would ask for, you know,
9 most – most recent asset values, you know, for
10 Highland, and – and myself and the team
11 provided those to him, so it was in that

18 A. The – the executive
19 compensation discussions were definitely in 20 2020.
21 Q. Okay. Now, did you ever make
22 proposals that took into account Jim's comment
23 that the notes were likely to end up forgiven
24 as part of his compensation?

OUTSTANDING CHECKS	RECONCILIATION INSTRUCTIONS
Reconciliation of Account	Date
CHECKS WRITTEN BUT NOT PAID  NUMBER  AMOUNT	Please examine this statement and items at once and refer any excep ions immediately.  Sort your checks numerically or by date issued.  Mark off in your checkbook each of your checks paid by the bank and list the numbers and amounts of those not paid in the space provided at the left. Include any checks still not paid from previous statements.  Subtract from your checkbook balance any SERVICE CHARGE (S.C.) or bank charge appearing on this statement.  Reconcile your statement in the space provided below.
	Enter bank balance from statement
	Add deposits not credited by bank (if any)
	TOTAL
Total of Checks not paid	Subtract total of checks not paid
THIS AMOUNT SHOULD EQUAL YOUR CHECKBOOK BALANCE->

Any Charge for Imprinted Checks Includes State Sales Tax Computed at the Current Rate, When Applicable Notice: The Annual Percentage Rate and Daily Periodic Rate may vary.

EXPLANATION OF BALANCE ON WHICH THE INTEREST CHARGE IS COMPUTED

We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day, add any new advances/fees, and subtract any unpaid interest or other finance charges and any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU THINK YOU FIND A MISTAKE ON YOUR STATEMENT

If you think here is an error on your statement, write to us at: NexBank

2515 McKinney Avenue, 11th Floor Dallas, Texas 75201

You may also contact us on the Web: www.nexbank.com

- You may also contact us on the veet: www.nexoank.com
  In your letter, give us the following information:

   Account Information: Your name and account number.

   Dollar Amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.

   Description of Problem: If you think here is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.
  You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

  Note the statificus of any potential errors in writing or electronically. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors in writing or electronically.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing or electronically. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

• We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on hat amount.

- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may con inue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for he remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers, Telephone us at 972.934.4700 or Write us at NexBank, 2515 McKinney Avenue, 11th Floor, Dallas, Texas 75201 as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on he statement or receipt. We

- must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

  (1) Tell us your name and account number (if any).

  (2) Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is
- an error or why you need more information.
- (3) Tell us he dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the nount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.
